PERSONAL.

Al. Swegle was a Portland passenger this morning.

Attorney General C. M. Idleman returned to Portland this morning.

Mrs. W. T. Gray and Mrs. Chas. A. Gray were Portland visitors today.

Fred Morris went to Seio this morning to visit for a week with relatives.

H. G. Sonnemman, the State street grocer, was a Portland business visitor today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Stapleton and daughter Miss Ada are in Portland to remain a few days.

Misses Addie and Maud Denham went to Albany this morning to remain for a visit with friends.

About $250.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the Salem fire department was called into East Salem to extinguish a fire on the property of John McIntyre, corner of Eighteenth and Mill streets.

Shortly after 1 o'clock flames were seen shooting through the barn roof and an alarm was immediately turned in. The department responded promptly and soon had the flames checked, although the barn was entirely destroyed. Willing hands arrived on the scene shortly after the origin of the fire and removed a horse, tool chest and other minor articles from the barn.

The barn contained about twenty bushels of oats and about 6 tons of hay, a part of which was baled. This was a total loss. About 4 cords of firewood that had been stored in the barn was saved. In all the loss will amount to $250 with no insurance, which less will be severely felt by Mr. McIntyre, who is a hard working man. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is thought to be incendiary, since the barn was set on fire at 6 a. m. Sunday, but the flames were extinguished before making much headway. This is the third fire in this part of the town the past week, which emphasizes the need of fire protection in that portion of the Capital City.

E. B. Slim, resident agent Oxyvita, Chatwin House.

I have been a chronic invalid for over fifteen years, being a sufferer from heart trouble, nervous prostration and many accompanying ailments. Two weeks use of your Oxyvita has shown a wonderful improvement in my general health, it having done me infinitely more good than any other treatment I ever used. I will be pleased to meet or hear from any interested inquirers.

Sincerely yours,
27 St. Mrs. C. S. BROCK.

TONIGHT AT ARMORY.

Col. F. V. Drake, of Portland, to Speak.

—Good Program.

The Bryan rally to be held this evening, at the Armory hall, under the auspices of the students' Bryan club, promises to be one of the best yet held in this city during the campaign. The boys will have no brass bands, torchlight processions or parade, but they will have the crowd and plenty of enthusiasm. A good program has been arranged and all who attend will no doubt appreciate the entertainment that has been provided.

One of the numbers on the program will attract considerable attention; that of the short address by I. P. Callison, one of the students attending Willamette University. Mr. Callison is the able editor-in-chief of the Willamette Collegian, and will be favorably remembered as Willamette's contestant in the state oratorical meet last February.

Col. F. V. Drake arrived in the city this afternoon, from points south, where he has been speaking. Col. Drake was met at the depot by a number of the members of the students' Bryan club, and escorted to the Willamette Hotel. Mr. Drake is a capable and eloquent expounder of the political subject, and will give a good talk. Tonight, at the Armory, C. K. Brandenburg, president of the students' Bryan club, will act as chairman and his introduction of Col. Drake will be prefaced by a few remarks.

The following program will be rendered, commencing at 8 o'clock this evening:

Song, Bryan Free Silver Choir.

Recitation, Miss Marie Campbell.

Address, Col. F. V. Drake, of Portland.

Song, Bryan Free Silver choir.

TRUE RECOGNITION.—Today at noon the friends and admirers of the valiant Capt. Harvey Jordan, who last evening, "shed blood defending the old flag" at Jefferson, presented that patriotic young man with a magnificent belt as a token of their admiration for his courage and manly act in quelling a riot. The beautiful belt was made of immaculate white oil-cloth, adorned with a massive harness buckle, and bore the insignia in gold letters: "This is the man that struck Callahan." The beautiful belt must have cost many cents and will no doubt be treasured in a secret chamber by its proud possessor. The Callahan boy is said to be all right today.

AT THE WOOLEN MILLS.—The familiar sound of the woolen mills was heard this morning at 5:30 a. m., for the first time since the mills were destroyed by fire last November. Work in the various departments of this manufacturing institution is progressing satisfactorily and it will only be a short time until a full force is at work. Eight looms are now in operation with more weavers being added as the demand for more assistance increases. Five hands were this morning given work in the finishing rooms so it will be seen all the departments of the mill are being operated although with not a full force. More hands will be added as they are needed and the product of the mills will soon be at the disposal of its numerous patrons.

SCORES OF BOXES.—The New York Racket has just received the largest lot of the "Star 5 Star" boots and shoes they have yet received, in men and boy's boots and shoes, fine and coarse, and ladies' and Misses' heavy and fine shoes of all kinds. They have a fine lot for ladies and children especially adapted for winter wear. Call and save money. cod-2d-1w.

SURPRISE PARTY.—Last evening at the home of her parents, a surprise party was given in honor of Miss Nellie Roberts. A very pleasant evening was had, those contributing to the pleasure of the affair being: Misses Nellie Roberts, Bessie Pimperton, Nellie White, May Mundell, Winnie Byrnes and Grace Golden; Masters Willie and Clayton Young, Ed Payne, Carl Morris, Marrell Morris, Fred Mundell, Ned Smith, and Ralph Roberts. Numerous games were indulged in and delightful refreshments were served.

POPULAR TRADING POINT.—Election day will be a big business day in Salem. Hundreds of people from the country will come into the city after voting, to hear the news, and our merchants will have all they can do. Salem is a popular trading point.

WEATHER FORECAST.—Tonight fair; Thursday, probable rain.

EXHIBITED POOR JUDGMENT.—In view of the Bryan Rally to be given in the armory this evening, under the auspices of the "Students Bryan Free Silver club," members of that club posted three of the hand bills at different points on the university campus Tuesday afternoon, announcing the meeting. President W. C. Hawley, of the university, who is one of those pre-judged single standard men, happened to spy the posters this morning and at once destroyed them but left a large McKinley & Hobart poster where it had remained unmolested for a number of weeks. Had he removed ALL posters nothing would have been thought of the affair. Even the fair minded members of the University McKinley & Hobart club expressed their regrets at such actions. The boys will have a crowded house tonight nevertheless.

A Big Improvement.
The work of removing the old plank sidewalk on the south side of the grocery establishment of Harriet & Lawrence on Ferry street, and on Commercial in front of the same business house and also those of Geo. C. Will, Gilbert Brothers, and J. C. Mills, was commenced this morning preparatory to the construction of a cement walk. The work will be done by the Labor Exchange, Wm. Ratzburg acting as foreman.

Justice Court.
In case of J. A. Roberts vs. John Savage Jr., which was tried before Justice H. A. Johnson Tuesday afternoon, the Jury returned a verdict in favor of defendant.

Judge O'Day, of Portland, will address the citizens of Lincoln precinct at Aumsville on Friday Oct. 30th at 7:30 p. m. Don't fail to hear this eminent Irish orator on free coinage of silver.
